LEADERSHIP

MARIO MAZZA
General Manager & Vice President

Mario has 25 years of experience in commercial wine and spirits production. He holds a Master's in Enology from the University of Adelaide in Australia where he gained early, hands-on experience in the Barossa Valley and the Adelaide Hills. Mario brought that experience home to the family business where he now leads the company's operations.

PETER SZERDAHELYI
Head Winemaker

Peter brings 25+ years of winemaking experience spanning Europe, Australia, and the United States. He has worked across diverse wine regions and production environments from premium varietal wines to sparkling wines and custom crush operations. Peter has extensive background in production, quality control, blending, and winery operations.

JOE NELSON
Director of Distilling & Brewing

Joe has more than 20 years of distilling experience. Throughout his career, he has approached his craft with a blend of scientific experimentation and deep knowledge of spirits production. Joe demonstrates his mastery of blending techniques in every batch and barrel.
