The Mazza family has been making craft beverages on the shores of Lake Erie for more than 50 years.

Beginning with a single vineyard in 1972, our family – and beverage list – has extended to four locations and dozens of products, including wine, spirits, and craft beers. Today, Mazza produces more than 500,000 gallons of fresh juice and wine and has approximately 600 acres under grapes and grain cultivation in Lake Erie Wine Country in partnership with a network of long-established and well-regarded growing partners.

Helmut graduated from the famed school of enology at Geisenheim and he came to Mazza Vineyards from Henkle and Sekt Co, one of the largest wineries in Germany. At the age of 23, he had the distinction of being one of the youngest winemakers in the Eastern U.S. Kranich helped Mazza to create distinguished Rieslings and other wines in the Germanic style.

Frank, co-founder of Mazza Vineyards, employed winemaking techniques and traditions passed down from his father who tended to 40 acres of sloping terrain planted with figs, chestnuts, and vineyards in Calabria, Italy until he left for the U.S. in 1954.

Gary studied alongside Helmut and Frank since 1973. Gary led the first Ice Wine vintage in 1984 and worked with Mario Mazza to develop the new wine lists for Mazza Chautauqua Cellars and the South Shore Wine Company when those operations launched in 2006 and 2007 respectively. Gary was an integral part of Mazza Vineyards until his passing.

Carolina continued to refine the existing blends and wines through a variety of techniques learned from experience working in New Zealand, Chile, Uruguay, and California. Carolina produced the first Carmine vintage in 2015 for the South Shore Wine Company and the 2016 vintage of Teroldego for Mazza Vineyards.

HYBRID WINE FINDS ITS FORMAT

MAY 20, 2022

Mazza estimates that between 5 and 7 percent of the output is in the form of hybrid sparkling bottles, but “we see that increasing. We’ve had a stellar response in the markets, and as we expand our distribution beyond Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticut and New Jersey, we see that component as a growth spot.”

Y DRINK With 50 years of fine wine under its belt, Mazza Vineyards (enjoymazza.com) is ready to celebrate with a new sip. Located outside of Erie, the family-owned and operated vineyard was founded in 1972 by brothers Robert and Frank Mazza. This month, to mark the occasion, they are introducing a dry white wine, The Perfect Blanc, to The Perfect Wines collection (erijayaperfectwine.com). “The Perfect Blanc will be delicately clean and dry with floral and fruity aromas for a—dare I say—perfectly refreshing wine for those warmer days and evenings on the porch, boat or by the pool,” says assistant winemaker Matthew Herrera. Joining a crisp rosé, floral bubbly and oaky red, the aromatic white sip—available at PA Librarians in Reading Terminal, among other stores—offers the ideal balance between flavor and aesthetic, and is sure to be a favorite summer bottle.

PHILADELPHIA STYLE

The Perfect Blanc blends some of Lake Erie AVAs: more fragrant varieties like chardonnay, pinot blanc, riesling and cabernet.
