Five & 20 Spirits and Brewing is about more than barley, hops, copper, and oak. The brand is all about its local roots – planted in soil enriched by the Whiskey Rebellion and now nourishing the crops that are harvested, mashed, boiled, and eventually poured into your glass. Our commitment to sourcing local doesn't end with agricultural products. Five and 20 Spirits and Brewing shares a home with Mazza Chautauqua Cellars, giving us the unique ability to age our specialty beers in our own recently emptied wine and whiskey barrels, imparting every last drop of flavor from the still-wet staves. The combination winery, distillery, and brewery is the first of its kind in New York State.

Five & 20 Spirits

Local agricultural products – from rye to barley – give our craft spirits their robust flavor and unique character that our distiller can tweak and adjust to bring out the very best in every bottle.

Five & 20 Brewing

Five & 20 beers range from light and refreshing to bold and complex, but each one begins the same way – with a collaboration with a local farmer so we know exactly where each barley grain and hop flower that makes its way into your glass comes from.
