LEADERSHIP

MARIO MAZZA
General Manager & Vice President

Mario has 25 years of experience in commercial wine and spirits production. He holds a Master's in Enology from the University of Adelaide in Australia where he gained early, hands-on experience in the Barossa Valley and the Adelaide Hills. Mario brought that experience home to the family business where he now leads the company's operations.

GUILLERMO LOMBARDO
Head Winemaker

Originally from Mendoza, Argentina's premier wine-producing region, Guillermo brings two decades of winemaking experience from the diverse terroir of Australia to the vineyards and cellars of Long Island, New York. He is driven by a passion for people to discover and enjoy quality wines.

JOE NELSON
Director of Distilling & Brewing

Joe has more than 20 years of distilling experience. Throughout his career, he has approached his craft with a blend of scientific experimentation and deep knowledge of spirits production. Joe demonstrates his mastery of blending techniques in every batch and barrel.
